Searching a job in a successful company with interesting projects and career opportunities.

About myself I can say that I love everything associated with design in all its forms. I think the design is not just the outer shell of the object, but also its semantic component. I'm positioning myself as an artistic open-minded designer trying to extend the range of my skills continuously.

Personal qualities: responsible, independent in decision-making, sociable, literate, confident, ethical, with sense of humor, an analytical mind, ability to quickly switch from the abstract to the specific, punctual, accurate, perfectionist.

Achievements
